POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Department of General Services (DGS) serves as the business manager for the State of California, with more than 3,500 employees and a budget of approximately $1.1 billion. DGS provides a unique variety of services to state agencies, boards and commissions, including innovative procurement and acquisition solutions; creative real estate management and design; building maintenance and operations, environmentally friendly transportation, travel and meeting management; design, funding and construction oversight for the construction of safe schools; and the mission critical administrative functions supporting these essential services.

Under the direction of the Director, the Chief, Office of Strategic Planning, Policy and Research is responsible for policy formulation and decision making while applying the core values of DGS -- integrity, accountability, communication, excellence, innovation and teamwork. The Chief is expected to adhere to, model, and support these values. The Chief is responsible for gathering and assessing data, conducting research studies, and developing, implementing, and assessing the department's comprehensive strategic/business plans. The Chief is responsible for working with DGS' various business units to develop performance measures. In addition the Chief will provide advice to the Director, Executive staff, and the Governance Council on trends and issues related to cultural resources and demographic characteristics using information gleaned from planning studies. The Chief will also recommend programmatic and policy changes based on the implications resulting from the assessment of these trends and issues as well as the development, coordination, technical assistance and training relative to surveys and related data. Finally, the Chief will research, organize, and complete special projects and other special assignments as needed under the direction of the Director.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a current State civil service employee with permanent civil service status, as defined in Government Code Section 18546.
